

NATO Locked Shields 2026 · FCON26 · Stand #33

NATO's Locked Shields 2026 validates the threat. Our sovereign stack IS the solution.

| THREAT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | DEFENCE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | VERIFICATION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <h3>YinYang Deception™</h3>Live deception cybersecurity<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>› Deception-layer active defence</li><li>› Backend-only — no agent install</li><li>› Always-on backend misdirection</li><li>› Zero attacker visibility to real assets</li></ul>"41 nations train for this. We deploy it." | <h3>Selfix</h3>Native cybersecurity OS<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>› Sovereign OS architecture</li><li>› Australian-built, defence-grade</li><li>› Self-healing infrastructure layer</li><li>› No patch dependency cycles</li></ul>"The OS NATO wishes they had." | <h3>FraudShield-AIT™</h3>Real-time financial verification<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>› &lt;300ms per transaction</li><li>› $423M anomalies detected</li><li>› WIPO 10/10 IP validation</li><li>› PCT patent — 22 jurisdictions</li></ul>"$423M detected. Sovereign-grade." |

|                                                     |                                                        |                                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|
| <h2>$423M</h2>ANOMALIES DETECTED | <h2>&lt;300ms</h2>VERIFICATION SPEED | <h2>22 jurisdictions</h2>PCT PATENT |
|-----------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|

See it live. Stand #33.

FCON26 · May 19–20 · Brisbane Convention Centre

rivalex.polsia.app/fcon26-license
rivalex@polsia.app

SCAN QR ON WEB

rivalex.polsia.app/cybersecurity-one-pager